

Broken People 12

~OR~

Your government thinks you are stupid

Grab your goodies, hit AB and let's go. Today's rant is fucked up US government from government trash collection to the DC Whorehouse. Years ago I read a book titled, They Think You are Stupid or maybe it was We Think you are Stupid. I forget the title but it was a by black politician who wrote about what our government really thinks about we proles and why it abuses us so much. Because collectively we are stupid enough to put up with it. Years ago a metaphysical teacher named Professor Wayne Dyer during some of his public talks criticized US government during socialist administrations by saying 'if you want to see how anything should not be done take a look at government and everything that it gets its hands on. After that he was suddenly faced with repetitive tax audits the worst ones TCMP or taxpayer compliance audits where a taxpayer has to prove every line and every deduction including birth cert for every person on the tax form. These are clearly Nazi harassment by police state of people who speak out per first amendment and Obama used these harassing republican donors during his term. Last time I heard of a president doing that was Nixon. They are used against political enemies as the financial Gestapo arm of the US police state. It silenced him, which is the purpose. IRS uses them when auditing people in cash business when suspecting unreported cash income. Socialists call that freedom. Read Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn's Gulag Archipelago in 3 volumes. He went through Russia's concentration camps during Stalin's purges that murdered an estimated 80 million people. Solzhenitsyn has some very wise points about dealing with tyrants like Stalin and Hitler. Ie. When the 'Orgs' which are Russian 'SS' staged midnight raids where people disappeared forever into those gulags he made an interesting note that little old ladies who stood her ground viciously in self-defense using a broom or tea spoon against them if arrested she was released unharmed. Often the Orgs would leave any like her to take the cowards. Cowards fared the worst tortures while any who would die instead of giving in were released and never again molested. The key was they did not fear death. Remember if you were paying attention in History class, '...Give me Liberty or death....?' Anyone like that who did not fear death scared the bejeebers out of those who did. Stalin's Orgs feared dying which is why Stalin controlled them to do his dirty work. Same for Hitler! Is the ah-ha light blinking on? That is why Afghanistan and Mideast wars kicked Russia's and US's ass....they had nothing to lose in taking those who did with them. Americans are taking on that same attitude. You do not hear this on talking head lame-mass news but nearly every week bomb squads are removing destructive devices from IRS property. A few years ago a man fed up with their harassment burned down his house leaving a note so insurance would not pay for arson in getting back at the finance companies. Then loaded his private acft with all the gasoline it would hold then kamikazed into the Waco IRS complex doing massive damage killing and crippling most of the people inside. Other terrorist attacks by American citizens made at IRS and government buildings across US put the fear in our government. 1980 civil revolt is back again with a vengeance. The 2021 riots sent a message to Socialists that Americans are fed up with these tyrants and willing to suicide in taking govt bureaucrats with them same as those suicide bombers in Mideast countries. One can only take so much before snapping. The new kinder IRS is nicer to taxpayers these days. Read through history to see they have done to people in past. Criminal! Just like the Orgs now they tread lightly as targets like in Stalin's Russian purges in the same pattern now happening in USA. Some Americans are finally getting mean towards their government tyrants. VA is walking softer as well. Vets with nothing to lose....the on campus veteran suicides are getting too close to them for comfort. As with IRS, they have removed devices meant to make a point in a big way but the news is censored to prevent copycat bombers.

Tyrants are bullying cowards. When a school bully gets hurt by someone else, the twerp either has a flying monkey do his or her dirty work or leaves the target alone. When a target takes a piece out of the other side they learn very quickly via pain not to do that anymore. She or he was getting an ass whipping anyway so take all possible out of the other side so the Pyrrhic win to them is not worth losing skin. Cowards are abundant so they pick on those who cower instead of one who will take a bite often literally out of the bully. Just like Stalin's Orgs. Americans are cowards. 2021 riots proved that. America when you grovel on your belly taking shit, expect to eat shit from now on. You just taught the bullies how to mistreat or how to treat you with respect. There is the key not fear death that is the lock opening the door to your cage. Your choice, your consequences. Solzhenitsyn went through a lot of hell in learning that so he could write it in a book that nearly cost him his life and did cost untold numbers of lives to people smuggling his manuscript out of Stalin's communist Russia to western free presses. Therefore the book titled They Think You are Stupid means cowardly Americans, you have taught the bullies how to mistreat and disrespect you. America you own that.

Protection of the freedoms you advantage came at great cost and must be protected every moment against tyrants like Hitler, Stalin, etc from robbing you of them at gunpoint using violence of law to do that. I am not here to do your homework. Kiss those research toads to find out more. Begin with Solzhenitsyn then maybe the aforelisted book. But wake up before you do not have freedom to do even that from behind bars of a prison cell. Stalin's closest friends and allies were first hits in his takeover. The useful idiots were last. As Yuri Bezmenov said, we line them up against the wet, blood stained wall where we shot those they betrayed and shot them last." Why would one keep anyone around who betrayed their friends and comrades in saving their worthless skins? Books are maps of wisdom left by humans who have come this way before us... They were left for your benefit.

Hitler was a piker when compared to Stalin; however, Stalin's purges still did not murder as many innocent men, women and babies as did America in its ethnic cleansing & genocide by immigrants, black and whites during their insane colonization. Keep in mind most were fine, pious christians. America still holds the trophy for most humans murdered in human history from racial genocide. Proud Americans think of that with your narcissistic patriotic ego about making America great again. This political author of They Think You are Stupid pegged it right! He should know being a politician. The sad part is that he is right. Ever talk to the average American voter? I can get 30 seconds before running to the hills screaming ‘the sky is falling and buffalo are fucking run for the mountains.’ A wise old Indian saying, ‘When buffalo herds fuck run for the mountains.’ Those things are big as a Mack truck and when thousands of them go into rut...FUBAR. The only complaint I have about the 2021 US riots is they did not go far enough. However they did get the right targets this time. Instead of killing innocent people and each other like in the LA riots, protestors went after govt, its agencies and businesses that support them.

What I did not like was blaming the cops. Hey, those working guys and gals are our people. If you wish to defund anything defund the police state. Leave our people alone. Like attacking soldiers and veterans of Vietnam you got the wrong targets! And people remember this, you fine Americans marched we soldiers into your Socialist’s war at gunpoint, aka press-ganged us using violence of draft laws backed by gunpoint force. I don’t know what possesses a person to be a cop. To serve and protect is probably on the beam. Yes, cops go bad; everyone has that same potential that only needs a trigger to set off. Bad exists in everything, that is life GET OVER IT, ACCEPT IT. Whether you condone it is your moral choice. Get my drift. Support the folks that have been supporting you and protecting those freedoms that you enjoy. None were free except to you.

AMERICA COWARDS, WHEN YOU PUT UP WITH SHIT, YOU EAT SHIT. That was the message from those riots. You shit eating, American cowards proved that. The book They Think That You are Stupid tells us that the politicians and lootership know that and you have exercising your free will choice taught them how to mistreat you.

Once upon a time we had real journalists that kept these birds in line. Ie. Texas legends like Molly Ivans and Bill Thompson. Both are dead so I don’t think they mind me using their real names. I was blessed to live during that era when this country had many just like them, and citizens who were not cowards as they are today. They just don’t write like Molly and Thompson any more. I have written about the unstoppable Molly Ivans in an earlier Broken People. Look under DILDO judge.

Bill Thompson did a memorable piece or two back in the 1990’s during newsprint days. We were battling ever increasing taxes and expanding govt like everyone else in the Nation after 60+ years of ongoing, wrongheaded, Socialist rule or lootership in America. One night Bill was sitting in on a county commissioners court. That is what its called but really it is more like a town meeting of citizens and their lootership. One of the citizens assumed the floor and voiced concerns about steady property tax increases, Nazi county property appraisal district misconduct, and county waste. He went on to cite many examples of them around where he lived. This guy did his homework. The County Commissioner we will call BD, ‘big dumbass’ fits the abbreviation if you are into using names, assumed the floor and said, ‘All we want out of you taxpayers is your money not advice about running government.' Quote unquote per Mr. Thompson. Bill Thompson went to his office and did overtime in reporting that meeting almost verbatim that hit reader's hands in the early morning edition. Voof! Commissioner BD did not seek reelection. However, one has to give him credit for honesty, which is rare as a gold chickens tooth for politicians. He said what all of them think about we proles, aka – dumb-masses washed or unwashed: YOU ARE STUPID – Just like the book title reads.. They just don't write or make them like Bill or Molly anymore.

Another instance in the 90's era of fading real journalists was another article by him, I think, it was written in his style. Mr. Thompson like Molly Ivans lost this life via cancer. They were sick at the time and probably needed help. I think Bill wrote it so let us for sake of this diatribe give him credit. The point is something else entirely. The great city of Azle TX taxing authorities threw an 89-year-old lady out of her house for unpaid property taxes. She had lived there her whole life. Getting old is not for sissies. It is a scary, painful, process that one does not understand or is prepared for and is nothing like the bullshit off US media. Worse is that few if any understand this final old age decline, dying and death process to even help or understand what these people undergo!!! Fuck romantic notions of On Golden Pond, it is not like that at all.

More like a scene out of Grumpy Old Men, yes they are grumpy, so are women everything hurts all the time. If it does not hurt it does not work, which is not always a bad thing, which depends upon what is not hurting and working. Moreover old age – decline, dying and death is the most terrifying experience one can go through alone. Anyway Jack Lemmon receives another IRS notice about delinquent taxes and he shoves the letter into a desk drawer overflowing with them. He has trouble understanding the world from senile dementia, which means mental decline of old age. When something like that arrives, he got scared and hid the thing that frightens him like a child either hides or hides the thing scaring s/he.

I have a senior citizen lady friend that does that. I am constantly telling her, don't do that. Put mail you do not understand in this box and tell me next time I visit to look at it. I placed a large plastic dustbin by her chair and told her do not throw away mail or anything. Put it all in here until I can look at it. If it scares or confuses her she throws it away!

Can you see the terrifying mental world that old people live in?

That does not include their physical world, which often is as scary. Senior people bodies are very fragile and break easily. The great city of Azle TX sent a sheriff in winter to evict this woman from her house per the law. Fortunately Texas winters are often mild and this was one such case. Tax sales work like this. Taxing authorities sell the property to highest bidder for taxes. Actually the whole process in real life is dirty as a week old shitty diaper.... Anyway the new homeowner goes to the house and finds this 89 year old lady in it, no utilities, cold, hungry and scared. He asked her why was she in the house and the woman said, 'I live here.' Now any other jackleg would have called the sheriff and had her jacked up for trespassing. But this guy was a hero. Instead he helped her to his truck, turned on high heat, tucked her in with blankets then drove to the local cafe where he was a regular. Helped her inside and asked the regular waitress if she knew the old woman. Nope. After explaining the situation, the waitress told another waitress to cover her area and helped the senior woman to the ladies room to tidy up and attend to ladies needs while the guy dug through her personal effects to find who is this woman. Her name was listed as previous owner on the house deed he just bought for back taxes. Voof! Finally his waitress friend comes back with the old lady, rewraps her in blankets and they got some food and hot drink into her. There was an old coat in the back room lost and found about the woman's size a diner left there long ago and the waitress got that and put it on the old lady. Cafe waitresses between customers set to getting her help from local and state social services, while the man searched for family or relatives. The old woman now safe and warm fell asleep like a baby in the cafe booth while they were doing this. Nobody knows how long she was in that vacant house alone. Finally state social services arrived and took the old woman to a safe house. Meanwhile this man finally found her only son and told him about his mother. One of the waitresses mad as a wet settin hen called Bill Thompson to come look. He did, and wrote a three part very lengthy newspaper article about this. This was back when exposing govt misconduct was apropos, before Hearse family acquired the local rag and the editor printed such articles without any fuss. Essentially that journalistic article lit a biblical shit storm even Moses is still talking about at the local desert pub. FUBAR. In a nutshell everyone in govt began the old not me, I was doing my job, finger-pointing two-step, hiding, we followed the law, not me, run and hide like hell. Essentially the draconian government threw an old confused woman into the street because of a greedy tax grab.

By the time all dust, skin, fur, and assholes cleared from the air, government at city, county, and bureaucrats lost careers, jobs and more. Even the Texas legislature revised laws and made new ones to avoid this type FUBAR again. The controversy was that hot. County and city laws changed, procedures changed, social services are now a part of all tax foreclosures and such. If not for people like the late Bill Thompson none of that would have changed. A state investigation revealed this was not the first incident. Reread that until it sinks in. That is what your socialist government thinks of you cash cows. This story has a happy ending...in real life that is very rare. The man who bought her house for taxes, signed the deed back over paying all expenses to do so. He paid movers to put her stuff back into the house and to turn on her utilities. Her son arrived and our hero gave him the deed, keys and nobody has heard of him since.

THAT IS A TRUE UNSUNG HERO. SO ARE THOSE WAITRESSES! HE DID NOT DO IT ALONE. A JOINT EFFORT OF WOMEN AND A MAN WORKING TOGETHER DID THAT - LADIES, THAT IS MAINLY FOR THE FEMINISTS. But for Bill Thompson and journalists like he and Molly the socialist inmates run this asylum. That is what they would do to any one of us should the opportunity arise. THAT IS

NAZI GERMANY BEFORE WW2 DURING THE HOLOCAUST. RIGHT HERE IN AMERICA. They just do not make journalists that write like that anymore.

Today's media is nothing more than propaganda parrots mimicking shills puking swill from their pie holes & tail pipes. When journalists like Bill and Molly died, that is the reason I stopped reading newspapers. Before I stopped reading them, a couple of up and coming types from that 'old school reporting' wrote for our local rag. They were promising! However, once they stepped on the wrong toes each was reassigned to high school scholastics and food patrol where they remained out of the way, and could not cause political inconvenience. I cancelled my subscription and wrote off another American era like Amos & Andy and nickel candy, RIP.

As an aside. In my high school probably the last truly progressive high school in America the degree plan required reading The Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck, who is a brilliant and talented author. In it was cases of the above heartlessness of America's evil Socialist government that ruled USA during the Great Depression. My grandparents, parents, and I lived through that savage Socialist era of 20th century. It was brutal; children starved for lack of food that the Kennedy and Johnson Socialists destroyed they claimed was to support farm prices and gave it away to other countries as part of a popularity campaign against Soviets during the Cold War. Those socialist administrations did not afford that same charity to America's starving people. A farm family lost their youngest baby to starvation before word got out to the community that they need help very badly. Babies starved to death while our country's socialist government destroyed food.

Personally I have no use for socialist or communist forms of govt. VA is a wholly socialist healthcare and govt system. I am not alone. A journalist asked a polish mercenary freedom fighter soldier what it was like to kill a man. He said, "I don't kill men, I only kill socialists and communists." They see us as nothing but animals to kill. Now to any of you bleeding hearts that is how they feel about any of you. Doubt that, return to top of this essay and reread it until that ah-ha light blinks.... For those who say that this is not real socialism, and that this time is different. You are right now it is your ass against the wall.

There is a chapter in John Stienbecks Grapes of Wrath that illustrates this entirely. His book only got past US censorship boards to publish because it was labeled as 'fiction.' Otherwise it was too close to what really went on during the Great Depression to print. The point of the Great Depression was to break the back of American's independence to the slave yoke of socialism. The depression was planned and executed on purpose to do just that. It succeeded. It placed over 60 million Americans into dirt poverty overnight. Bonnie and Clyde, Capone and other 'gangsters' fought against the real enemies US Govt. They were the freedom fighter mercenaries that killed socialists and communists not men. The financiers of Wall Street were scapegoated, as was capitalism for this coup d'état by Socialist forces set to destroy and enslave this nation to Socialist monsters.

With that mindset go back over US history since 1900 and re-look at it to take another picture. Steinbeck illustrated something very profound in the chapter I will call, Who Do I shoot? A dozer driver approached a family farm lost to the govt for non-payment of taxes. SEE ABOVE OLD LADY. The dirt poor family was loading their meager belongings onto an open truck looked like what the Beverly Hillbillies used in the TV sitcom, and were dressed like that too. The propaganda sitcom made fun of poor people just like these in Stienbecks novel. FUN, it is to laugh. I am not amused. Total desperation and hopelessness threaded through Stienbecks book as it did throughout America in the Great Depression. Their home was only a shack. As the dozer approached the farmer grabbed his shot gun and pointed it at the driver. He shut off the dozer and said, 'put down that gun I am just doing my job. If you shoot me another dozer operator will come tomorrow to finish the job. If you shoot me it will accomplish nothing. They will hang you leaving your wife and kids without a husband, father & provider. It will not change a thing.' The farmer drooped in total hopelessness then said, 'whom do I shoot?' Turned, Got in the truck with his family and drove away. Later in the same chapter this comes up again. And the scene expands this more....Who do I shoot? The banker, savings and loan, the real estate broker, county clerk, surveyor, the mayor, governor, president - ad infinitum. Nobody is accountable but everyone is robbing you in just doing his or her jobs. THAT WAS NAZI GERMANY; THAT WAS THE HOLOCAUST. This was really going on across America during Great Depression robbing American's of their lives and family wealth by Socialist Govt.

The number one defense at Nuremberg Nazi War Trials was, "I was just doing my job; following orders; they told me to; I have a family; get the drift?"

Tens of millions of innocent people – babies – tortured and murdered in just doing my job. Those camps were highly complex operations requiring vast materials to build and operate which needed masses of workers - other than inmates - to create materials and such to operate them. Entire towns did nothing but support those death camps as a means of making a living: torturing and murdering innocent human beings - babies. At the height of Nazi death camp Treblinka's operations the camp murdered +1500 humans a day and did so 365 days a year for years. Just doing my job. You can read more about this but just doing my job did not cut it at Nuremberg and it does not do so now. THROWING A CONFUSED 89-YEAR-OLD LADY IN THE STREET DURING WINTER FOR UNPAID TAXES JUST DOING MY JOB? IN AMERICA DURING THE 1990'S? MY MIND IS A BLANK AT SUCH INHUMANITY IN USA.

Every human knows right from wrong at birth, OEM. Every human has free will and free will not to choose. Every human is accountable. Steinbeck made that point in 'whom do I shoot?' Socialists use a collectivist crowd mentality or crowd affects that block one's personal accountability and moral injury by hiding within or behind the HERD. Remember Capt America US sniper? In the crowd he shined, alone he blew off half his head when facing moral injury of personal accountability. Socialism and all subsets of it are evil. It is a parasitic form of slavery as subjugation to evil forces that encourage you to harm others for self-gain as a partner in those crimes.

VA is a perfect example. VA workers are rewarded for harming, robbing, crippling and killing US veterans, Americans just like them. In Nazi Germany ordinary Germans killing German-Jews. Neighbors turned in and murdered neighbors. The baker murdered the post maiden; the green grocer murdered the school child; the schoolteacher killed the bus driver just doing my job. That was law of the land. That is socialism and all subsets of it. VA employees are rewarded in just doing their jobs same as the Nazis when they murdered, tortured, crippled untold millions of men, women and babies in being rewarded just doing my job. That makes one as evil or worse than the system and its institutions whether named Nazi, socialist, communist...names do not matter.

What matters is what you chose to do or not.

There is not a perfect crime. 3 facets always exist that know of the sin, you, (Divine Karmic Law and Universal Mind.) Nothing records, stores and plays back a life more perfectly than a human mind or spirit, body and soul. When your Time of Ashes comes to face you.... excuses such as 'just doing my job' do not excuse one anymore than it did at Nuremberg Nazi War Crime Trials of WW2 for mass millions of murdered innocent men, women and babys.

I will close here. You can never hide from you. NEVER.

Until next time if I am unfortunate enough to still be living in this shithole, I am outta here.
